

The MICC Communicator

February 2015

Mission and Installation Contracting Command

Vol. 5, Issue 2

FEATURED

MICC first to implement warrant testing program

MICC officials are implementing a new warrant testing program for contracting officers possessing or seeking the warrant authority valued at more than $6.5 million.

► MORE

Black History Month: Diversity key to success

February marks Black History Month, a period during which members across the DOD and nation honor the contributions made by African-Americans.

► MORE

LEADER'S PERSPECTIVE

by Command Sgt. Maj. Stephen Bowens
MICC command sergeant major

Similar to any corporation or industry, transforming our Army demands a business approach to ensure we can continue to achieve our mission and support our No. 1 customer.

► MORE

HEADLINES

Fort Bragg acquisition forecast attracts over 225

More than 225 business owners from throughout the southeastern United States turned out during a recent biannual acquisition forecast open house to learn about contract opportunities.

► MORE

418th Contracting Support Brigade cases its colors

Members with the 418th Contracting Support Brigade cased their colors Jan. 30 at the III Corps Headquarters before an upcoming deployment to Afghanistan. The 418th CSB will represent the Army as the lead service for contracting in the U.S. Central Command as part of Operation Freedom's Sentinel.

► MORE

MICC IT specialist brings local police history to life

A MICC information technology specialist's interest in a story about a riot involving Soldiers and policemen sparked interest in the local police department's history. Steven Ramsey's research led to the creation of a 3,000-member San Antonio Police Department Historical Society.

► MORE

MORE NEWS

Bragg CCT support
Training remains key
904th CCBn deploys
Contracting transition
STAND-To! I. A.M. Strong
DACM February Topics

The MICC Communicator

The MICC Communicator is an authorized electronic publication for members of the U.S. Army. Contents of The MICC Communicator are not necessarily the official views of, or endorsed by, the U.S. government, Department of Defense, Department of the Army or Mission and Installation Contracting Command. The MICC Communicator is a monthly publication produced by the Mission and Installation Contracting Command Office of Public and Congressional Affairs. Send your submissions or feedback to usarmy.jbsa.acc-micc.list.pao@mail.mil

 Find Us!

