

The MICC Communicator

March 2015

Mission and Installation Contracting Command

Vol. 5, Issue 3

FEATURED

Gen Via: We have always been in a state of change

An Army in transition and the potential impact of sequestration were among the key topics discussed by the AMC commanding general during a visit to the MICC March 11 and 12.

► MORE

Acquisitions, accessions form support continuum

From the time young men and women develop a propensity to serve their nation to the years following their military commitments, contracting serves an enduring role.

► MORE

LEADER'S PERSPECTIVE

by George M. Cabaniss Jr.
MICC deputy to the commanding general

To remain relevant to the nation and our Army, the MICC must continuously strive to be the most efficient and effective command the Army can afford.

► MORE

HEADLINES

Contracting battalion completes Liberia deployment

Soldiers from the 922nd Contingency Contracting Battalion cased their unit colors during a ceremony March 17 at the U.S. Embassy in Monrovia, Liberia, in preparation to return to Fort Campbell, Kentucky, following their support in response to the Ebola outbreak as part of Operation United Assistance.

► MORE

MICC-Fort Lee provides acquisition open house

The Mission and Installation Contracting Command contracting office staff at Fort Lee, Virginia, conducted its second acquisition forecast event March 17, discussing a variety of topics to more than 85 attendees from throughout the area and as far away as New York.

► MORE

Command's Soldiers, civilians test skills at OCSJX-15

More than 125 members from throughout the MICC are taking part in the 2015 Operational Contract Support Joint Exercise that got underway in Texas and has moved to Hawaii's Schofield Barracks.

► MORE

MORE NEWS

STAND-To! SAAPM

Combining workload

Spotlight: Lucy Vessels

Fort Bragg industry day

Drum Soldier lifts 670lbs

POM leverages CTOC

The MICC Communicator

The MICC Communicator is an authorized electronic publication for members of the U.S. Army. Contents of The MICC Communicator are not necessarily the official views of, or endorsed by, the U.S. government, Department of Defense, Department of the Army or Mission and Installation Contracting Command.

The MICC Communicator is a monthly publication produced by the Mission and Installation Contracting Command Office of Public and Congressional Affairs.

Send your submissions or feedback to usarmy.jbsa.acc-micc.list.pao@mail.mil

Find Us!

